

SOCIETY

Elaborate preparations have been made by the members of the Elk's Club to have this Banquet and Ball the largest affair ever given by the Club to its members and out of town friends. Wednesday night will undoubtedly be a gala event in society, and from the many acceptances the Secretary has already received, will also be the best attended the club has ever known. The Committee has planned a programme of interest to everybody, and with such noted speakers as Dr. Patton, (toastmaster) Past Exalted Rulers, M. A. Dempsey, and A. P. Stewart, who will speak on Charity and Justice, J. D. Porterfield on Brotherly Love, and Brother Thos. F. Lane, on Fidelity, and a violin duo by Misses Freda Rieck, and Verna Day. Those attending will have a rare treat in store for them. The committee has also provided a Cabaret entertainment for the guests that they sure will rival and ever seen in this part of the State.

Miss Mary Burroughs will leave Friday for Charleston for a visit with relatives and from there will go to Staunton, Virginia, where she will be present at the commencement exercises of her sister Miss Gene Burroughs who is attending school at Stewart Hall. Miss Burroughs will visit friends in Virginia and will later be joined by Mrs. Burroughs, and both will journey to Yale to witness the Graduating exercises of that college. Kendrick Burroughs who has received many honors during his school year, and will receive his diploma, and can proudly claim among the highest honors of his class. They will all return to the Cape, to remain the balance of the summer.

Mrs. Phillip Martineau, who has come to this country to show Americans how to make gardens deplorable the fact that there are so few gardens in this country. She says that Americans are so used to things on a big scale that they do not realize what can be done with a garden plot no bigger than a handkerchief. London with all its smoke, she says, has more gardens than New York.

Miss Amy Kimmel and the Rev. J. J. Clifton left Tuesday for St. Louis to attend a meeting of the Church. They will remain over for the Pageant.

Sir: Would you call Huerta's a standing or running army? And do they play anything but one night stands?

The young ladies of the Loretta Academy had a most delightful day on their picnic Thursday, when with baskets laden with good things to eat, they started early in the morning for the Fair Grounds. The day was passed in games and other amusement, and with the ideal weather conditions to help them in their outing, the young folks were loathe to leave their good times behind when going home time came.

A delightful luncheon was given Thursday at noon, by Mrs. S. B. Hunter at her beautiful home on Lorimer street, in honor of Mrs. J. Hunter Byrd of St. Louis, and Miss Lydia and Audrey Cheney of Sikeston. The table was most artistically decorated with a large centrepiece of Richmond roses and ferns. Beside the out of town guests, there were present Mrs. L. B. Houck, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Oliver and Miss Marguerite Oliver.

Invitations are out from the Regents, Faculty and Students of the Normal school for the commencement exercises which will take place May 30th to June 1th.

"I don't want any real estate, but you can buy this property for a song." "Oh, all right, if you'll take my notes."

Mrs. J. Hunter Byrd of St. Louis and Audrey Cheney of Sikeston are visiting Mrs. J. B. Houck.

Mrs. Stephen Hunter has as her guest Mrs. George Hayes of Corpus Christi.

Many out-of-town visitors attended the celebration of the 60th anniversary of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of this city yesterday. Special services were held in the morning afternoon and evening, with a splendid violin and organ recital at the evening service. Among the prominent out-of-town visitors were: Geo. Beyer of Altenburg, who was a teacher at the Lutheran School 50 years ago; C. Kramp of Chicago; H. H. Beidenwieden of St. Charles; J. Lindorfer of Illinois; W. D. Niemann of Cleveland and B. Hemmeln of Alburg, Mo.

Moved.

We don't know where the teapot is. We haven't found it yet. It may be in that box of straw. With mother's vinaigrette. We haven't any looking-glass. Excepting one that's cracked. The mirrors may be here all right. But they haven't been unpacked.

The parlor furniture is marred. Wherever it got hit. It looked all right in the old flat, but here it doesn't fit. Ma said 'twould be an awful job. And so, in fact, it proved. We haven't any beds tonight. But, anyhow, we've moved! —Somerville Journal.

With the modified sailor shapes that are so fashionable this summer, a nose-tip white lace veil is worn that is said to be most becoming. Veils especially the short ones that only come to the tip of the nose are much worn in black, but the reports from abroad say that the white lace veil will come next.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harrison will leave Saturday for a two-weeks trip through the East.

Miss Marjorie Post and little master Robert Lamkin left on the afternoon train for Commerce, where they will spend several days. Master Walter Post will have a birthday party Saturday afternoon and Bobbie will be one of the out of town guests.

The recital given by the pupils of Miss Freda Rieck on Thursday evening at the Elk's Club, was greatly enjoyed by the parents and friends of the young students who attended. The programme as follows, was a treat and the boys and girls showed the excellent result of their splendid training:

The gentleman who told the students of the Missouri School of Journalism that the society column is the least interesting thing in a newspaper because it has no "human interest" is a magazine writer. It is difficult to muckrake in the society column.

Mrs. D. B. Smith entertained Monday with a one o'clock luncheon at her beautiful new home on Bessie street in honor of her sister, Miss Lillian Leachman who will leave shortly for her home in Virginia. The table was prettily decorated with pink and white roses, with dainty place cards at each plate also in pink and white. After the luncheon, the young folks enjoyed music and singing, and later attended the matinee. The guests of the afternoon were Mrs. Allen Oliver, Misses Ruth Glenn, Sara Glenn, Grace Montgomery, Irene Williams, Helen Vogelzanger, Mary Knott, Phyllis Cairns, and Lillian Leachman.

Sunday being one of the Spring's ideal days, many picnic parties were seen on the way to the woods, and streams, taking the day of rest in the cool and quiet of the country. Among the largest of the parties which motored out to Big Flora, were Misses Ruth Glenn, Sara Glenn, Phyllis Cairns, Mary Knott, Lillian Leachman, Helen Vogelzanger, Margaret Bunting, Rachel Howell of Memphis, Mrs. Vogelzanger, Miss Polly Vogelzanger, Mr. and Mrs. Quarrells and children, Harry Hart, Ed. Society is greatly interested in the approaching Banquet and Ball to be given by the Elk's Club, next Wednesday night, May 27th. There will be a reception from 9 to 10, after which the banquet will be served. Dr. Patton will be Toastmaster of the evening, and several prominent business men will be called upon to give a short talk, also there will be a musical programme rendered during the dinner, arrangements for which have not been wholly completed as yet. This affair will undoubtedly be one of the largest social functions ever given by the Elk's Club and the Secretary has already received over 200 acceptances.

Miss Sara Glenn entertained Friday evening with a dinner and theater party in honor of Miss Rachel Howell of Memphis. The young ladies enjoying the evening were Misses Phyllis Cairns, Mary Knott, Rachel Howell and Ruth Glenn.

Mrs. J. Danks and daughter, Miss Jannett of Crystal City, were the guests over Friday of Mrs. Kassell of this city, and Saturday left for Poplar Bluff, for a visit with Mrs. Dank's two sons. Mr. Danks will join his family at Poplar Bluff, Sunday.

What does Algernon call his motor boat? Depends on how the engine is working.

Miss Anna Krenshaw of Charleston is visiting Miss Kathryn Warry.

W. W. Giles and family of Chaffee, passed thru the Cape today. They are motoring to Ashville, Ill., where they will visit relatives before returning home.

A young woman entered a sporting-goods store one morning and the polite clerk went forward to meet her. "I want," she said, "to see some golf clubs." "Certainly," replied the clerk. "About how many do you want?" "Well, really," she responded, slow, "I scarcely know. You see, I am just learning to play golf, and I do not know much about it as yet. Why, I don't even know which end of the caddie to use."—Lippincott's.

A "bunking" party was given Friday night by Mrs. E. P. Ellis, at her residence on Independence street, in honor of the 18th anniversary of her daughter Marion. The young ladies assembled early in the evening, and enjoyed games, music and dancing, until quite late, then after partaking of delightful refreshments, it was suggested that they retire for the night. One can imagine how much sleep 14 happy girls were blessed with that night, and the Chaperons say it was almost sunrise before the last of the talking and laughing ceased. In spite of the wakful and excitement of the night before, the weary maidens were up bright and early this morning, and after eating a hearty breakfast, left for their homes, expressing their great delight as such enjoyable affairs. The young ladies and their chaperons were: Misses Alma Schraeder, Belle Browning, Leona Hasslinger, Effie Hines, Helen Hines, Gabriella Campbell, Ella Keller, Edith, Marion, Marie and Elizabeth Ellis, Mrs. Keller, Mrs. Bertha Kuss, and Mrs. Ellis.

Mrs. Louis Rau, Mrs. L. C. Rau and Mrs. Edwin Keller and three children of Dutchtown were the guests Friday of Mrs. L. T. Keller.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Sons of Veterans surprised Miss Ella Keller on her 22nd birthday Friday afternoon at her home on Route 4. Miss Keller received many beautiful flowers and remembrances on this happy occasion, and there were many friends present to wish her the best of greetings. Cards were played during the afternoon and the prizes were won by Mrs. Kassell, Rau, Fisher and Ellis. Among the guests present were Mesdames E. M. Thilenius, F. H. Kassell, A. Dittlinger, D. A. Frank, J. Thomas, E. Fisher, O. Vogt, Blummer, Bertha Kuss, G. Schultz, C. Hines, A. Brinkof, L. Rau of Dutchtown, Ellis, L. T. Keller, J. Danks, Huhn; Misses Marion and Marie Ellis.

The Baptist Church will give an excursion Tuesday night on the Cape. The delightful weather makes everyone want to take this cool and enjoyable trip whenever the opportunity affords, and at the same time help those who are giving these trips.

Mrs. Wm. Bryan came home Saturday from Carbondale for a few days visit with her parents and friends. Mrs. Bryan is looking prettier than ever and is very enthusiastic over her new farm life, which seems to more than agree with her.

The programme for the Graduating Exercises of the pupils of the High School, which took place Sunday morning at the Presbyterian Church was most impressive and interesting. It was opened by a prelude on the organ by Mr. Shivelbine followed by the Doxology; Invocation, Rev. F. Y. Campbell; Hymn of Peace, High School Chorus; Scripture Lesson; prayer, Rev. J. H. Wells; Lift Thine Eyes, High School Chorus; Offertory; Sermon, "A Life Program" Rev. J. F. Lawson; "The Crusader" High School Chorus; Benediction; Postlude organ, Mr. Shivelbine. The three class graduates were Chester W. Kassell, Bryan J. Lane, and Geo. R. Taylor.

Tonight at 8:15 there will be a class address and presentation of diplomas, by the Rev. James W. Lee of St. Louis at the Presbyterian Church.

Many compliments have been passed upon the artistic layout of the grounds around St. Vincent's Church. Mrs. A. D. Speak, vice-president of this ward, for the Civic Improvement Association deserves much praise for her untiring efforts in beautifying the vacant lots along Spanish street and it is to be regretted that the old building adjoining the church the harbor of such startling and unattractive signs, should be permitted to remain and detract from the otherwise progressive appearance of the street. Other parts of the city are too noticeable for their "cleaned up" appearance, and the result of the efforts of the Civic society and citizens in general, should make a pleasing impression upon our coming visitors.

Miss Ella Keller was given a surprise party Sunday afternoon at her home on Route 4, in honor of her birthday. Many guests from Dutchtown were present, as also from the Cape, among whom were, Mrs. L. C. Rau, Messrs. and Mesdames Dr. Chostner, Ben Ruddert, Oscar Crites, Martin Daune, Upton Leller, Wm. Feuerhahan, all of Dutchtown; the Cape folks present were, Messrs. and Mesdames Bruno Schultz, L. T. Keller, Mrs. Bertha Kuss, Miss Keller received many handsome presents. Cards were played during the afternoon, the prizes being won by Mesdames Schultz, Ruddert, and Rau; L. T. Keller, L. C. Rau; lone hand Mr. D. Chostner; consolation, Wm. Feuerhahan. After an elaborate supper the guests enjoyed music and singing, and at a late hour returned to their homes.

The many friends of Miss Margaret Hiney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Hiney of this city, will be interested to learn of the splendid success this charming young lady is making in St. Louis with her music. An article in one of the Sunday papers pays a high tribute to Miss Hiney's ability as a vocalist:

Miss Margaret Hiney of Cape Girardeau, a pupil of Alexander Henneman, will sing two groups of songs at the recital given by the graduating class of Mr. Carl Geisser, on Tuesday evening, May 26, at 8:15 o'clock in Musical Art Hall. The songs are "Somewhere" (Lang) "Romeo and Juliet Waltz" (Gounod), "Little Gray Home in the West" (Lohr) and "Invitation Waltz" (Owen). Miss Gertrude Henneman will be at the piano.

Dr. Amy Daniels, professor of home economics of the University of Missouri, will be one of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, to be held in Chicago in June.

One of the interesting subjects that will be discussed at the Chicago biennial of the General Federation of Women's Clubs is "How Can We Bring the Influence of Beauty and Art to the Children of America?" Among those who will speak on the subject will be: Mrs. Herman Hall, Mrs. Everett Pattison, Mrs. Harry L. Keefe and Mrs. John B. Sherwood.

The Normal Excursion Saturday night on the Steamer Cape Girardeau was one of the largest excursions the Cape has had this year, about 250 young folks enjoying the outing. The music was furnished by the Normal Orchestra, and the dancers showed their appreciation by crowding the floor to the limit as the strains of each dance number were heard.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Frank of Advance motored to the Cape Sunday to spend the day with Mrs. Frank's sister, Mrs. Don Parr of Middle street.

Miss Marjorie Post and Master Bobbie Lamkin returned from Commerce Sunday afternoon after spending several days with Miss Post's brothers.

Miss Leona Lloyd of Benton and Miss Susie Fields of this city, visited Miss Lloyd's parents at Greenbrier, Mo., Sunday.

Mrs. Gus Pott of Pascola is visiting her mother Mrs. A. D. Speak.

Mrs. Eugene Rowaine of St. Louis is visiting her mother Mrs. R. Barber.

Mrs. E. E. Brown of Themis street is visiting friends in St. Louis.

ANNUAL MEDICAL CONVENTION MEETS AT ATLANTIC CITY.

The oldest National Medical Society will hold its seventieth annual convention at Atlantic City, June 29th to July 4th inclusive. The American Institute of Homeopathy was the first national medical society ever organized in this country and during the seventy years of its existence has always been foremost in advancing the requirements of medicine. The forthcoming session is expected to be an unusually large one as matters of importance to the public well are to be brought up.
